Colonel J. W. FORNEY, United States Centennial Commissioner in Enrope.

MY DEAR SIR,

Before your departure for America I have very great pleasure in offering my professional services in aid of the Centennial Fund. Should this proposition be agreeable to you, I will organise a performance of "Macbeth" at Drury Lane, on Friday, Feb. 4th, Mr CHATTERTON having generously offered his Theatre for that occasion.

Yours sincerely,

GENEVIEVE WARD.

Fenton's Hotel, Jan. 20th, 1876

MY DEAR MISS WARD.

Your letter of the 18th was an agreeable surprise, and is particularly welcome, not only as showing your praiseworthy patriotism, but your readiness to follow the example of your distinguished countryman, Mr JOHN S. CLARKE, who more than a year ago contributed a large sum to the Centennial Fund. Your liberal proposal is particularly appropriate, as being the first Centennial Dramatic Representation in the great City of London. Of course, I gratefully accept your proposition, and I am much gratified to add that since the receipt of your letter I have consulted General ROBERT S. SCHENCK, American Minister, and General ADAM PATEAU, American Consul-General in London, both of whom have cordially consented to recommend your praiseworthy undertaking to the public.

Very sincerely yours,

J. W. FORNEY.

FRIDAY MORNING, February 4th, 1876, the performance will commence at 1.30, with SHAKESPEARE'S Tragedy,

MACBETH
